

Revision of Article 2 of the Regulations Governing Type Approval of Measuring Instruments (January 2, 2006)

Article 2 of the Regulations Governing Type Approval of Measuring Instruments were recently revised as per the Ministerial Order (#BSMI/MOEA 09404610600) dated December 30, 2005. The revision mainly involves a postponement of effective date for the requirement of type approval for diaphragm gas meters from the originally scheduled date of January 1, 2006 to July 1, 2006.
